Coming soon: town's mammoth jobs boom

AN EMPLOYMENT boom is on its way to Haverhill.

More than 900 new jobs are due to be created in the town in the next 12 months – a figure three times greater than the total number of local people registered as unemployed.

Members of the Haverhill Partnership were told of the town's thriving job prospects at their meeting on Monday. And even more employers are keen to move in.

James Talbot, economic development officer for St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said the new Tesco store, due to open next year, would create the lion's share of those jobs, with around 500 people expected to be taken on.

The nearby cinema and restaurant complex, due to open later this year, would also provide plenty of job opportunities, and work has already begun on the new 30,000 sq ft Culina Logistics regional storage and distribution centre, which will create 350 jobs when it opens later this year.

A new building being constructed for the HID Corporation on the Haverhill Business Park will generate another 55 jobs, and an Indian pharmaceutical company interested in opening premises in the town would create another 20 positions.

Mr Talbot said discussions were also ongoing with many companies, including one which is planning a move from Bury St Edmunds and is considering the former Project Office Furniture site as an option. Waste recycling company Nursery Trades had been considering expanding its Haverhill operations and creating another 200 jobs, but this had been postponed for the time being.

Mike Dawson, the borough council's director for Haverhill, said the town's economy was currently extremely buoyant.

He said: "Very few areas can demonstrate the growth that Haverhill has got."

Clinic plan offers nothing new, say GPs

LOCAL doctors have branded plans for a new walk-in health clinic in Haverhill as little more than "a glorified GP practice", with no additional services.

Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT) revealed last month that the town was its preferred site for the first drop-in clinic in the county. It would be open seven days a week from 8am to 8pm.

The news came after doctors from three practices in the town had protested, with support from a 10,000-signature petition, against the PCT's plan to cut their budgets by almost £300,000 over the next five years.

A draft consultation document issued by the PCT gives details of what services the new clinic would provide. PCT representatives will attend a full Haverhill Town Council meeting at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College on Tuesday, March 25 at 7pm to discuss the plan. Members of the public who attend may be able to speak.

A spokesman for the Christmas Maltings Surgery in Camps Road, which led the doctors' protest, noted that not all services at the clinic would be available to people who were not registered patients. Initially, the clinic would not provide any additional services which are not already available in the town, although extra services could be provided later.

The spokesman said doctors were surprised that one of the reasons Haverhill had been chosen was because it had deprived areas, when they had been told no extra money was available when the same reason was put forward to oppose budget cuts.

"It seems like nothing more than another glorified GP practice that we do not need. There is not a single service listed that we are not already providing," the spokesman said.

The consultation period on the plan runs until April 16. More details can be found at www.suffolkpct.nhs.uk/consultation

Trim and terrific Gill helps appeal

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

SUPERSLIMMER Gill Cox – who has shed an amazing seven stone to achieve her life-long dreams, including running the London Marathon – is backing our Hospice at Home Appeal by pledging her sponsorship money.

Gill, 41, has always wanted to "wing walk" on an aeroplane. But to fulfil the dream, which she plans to do later this year, she had to shed seven stones.

Two and a half years ago, Gill, who lives in Exning but works as a community nurse for people with learning difficulties at Stourmead Close, Kedington, decided to tackle her weight when it hit 19st 8lbs.

Gill said: "I spent a lot of time being very plump. I was a very fat child, then in my 20s I took up judo and lost quite a bit. Then I stopped going and I was 19st 8lbs and I was just not going to be 20st. I am only 5ft 1in tall and I was not voluptuous, I was just squat.

"I started going to the gym at Haverhill Leisure Centre and then six months later I joined Weight Watchers, also at the centre.

"I have always been quite active, I do salsa dancing and re-enact historical battles. I have always been quite adventurous, but I could not have done the 20-mile Grizzly multi-terrain event in Devon I have just completed if I was still 19st.

■ SUPERSLIM

... Gill Cox is throwing her weight behind our Hospice at Home appeal.

"I set myself special goals. When I reached 15st I started horse riding and I have passed 13st, so I am saving up for my wing walk. When I reach 11st I am going to buy a new wardrobe, I love being able to wear pretty clothes now.

Gill is hoping to do the London Marathon in under six hours and contribute to the Weekly News Hospice at Home Appeal, which aims to raise £40,000 for St Nicholas Hospice so that patients from the Haverhill area can receive treatments and therapies in their own homes, instead of having to travel to Bury St Edmunds.

She said: "I am happy to support the appeal. I had a friend who received support from the hospice so she was able to die at home.

"I think it gives people options of where they receive treatment. Some people don't want the responsibility of being at home, but this will give them the choice. They don't just support the patient, they support the whole family."

To sponsor Gill, visit www.justgiving.co/gilliancox.

For more information on how Haverhill Leisure Centre can help you achieve your weight goals, contact (01440) 702548. Weight Watchers sessions are held at Haverhill Leisure on Wednesday morning 10am.

■ Haverhill's University of the Third Age will hold a collection for the appeal at its AGM on Tuesday, March 25. (See article below).

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause?

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An online donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Appeal for witnesses

A WOMAN was left with cuts and bruises after being assaulted in Haverhill on Sunday, March 2. Police are appealing for information about the incident at Arrandene Road, Haverhill, at around 8pm.

A man was seen in the area at the time and police want to speak to him as he may hold important information about this incident. He is described as white, around 40 years old, of average build and height, with short brown hair. Call Pc Paul Gant at Haverhill CID on (01284) 774100.

Tools taken in van raid

TOOLS and copper piping were stolen by thieves who broke into a blue Renault Master van parked in the street overnight in Haverhill. The theft happened at Chimswell Way, Haverhill, between 7pm on Tuesday, March 4, and 7.30am the following morning. A tyre was also damaged on the vehicle and anyone with information about the incident should call Pc Will Wright at the Haverhill North Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774100.

Vehicle break-in

THIEVES broke into a VW Bora parked overnight at Haverhill by forcing a lock and stole a DVD player, a sat nav and tools. The theft happened at Ruffles Road, Haverhill between 6pm on Saturday and 9.30am the following day. Anyone with information should call Pc Stuart Wilson at the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774100.

U3A faces closure without committee

A THRIVING activities group with more than 200 members could fold unless committee members come forward to help run it.

The University of the Third Age was formed in 1993 and currently has 230 members enjoying 20 activity groups. They meet regularly between monthly meetings, which offer a range of leisure and learning opportunities.

But chairman Aldine Horrigan said the organisation could close if members did not come forward to run the committee. She was concerned about the lack of interest shown to replace the current committee.

U3A's constitution only allows committee members to serve for three years and six new members are needed to replace those who have completed their time, including the chairman herself.

Mrs Horrigan urged as many people as possible to attend the group's AGM on Tuesday, March 25 at 10am at Haverhill Arts Centre.

She said: "With 230 members and still many enquiries you would think there would be some members out there who would come forward. We are the most successful organisation in Haverhill, bringing a great deal of pleasure for so many retired people and it is vital that we get a new committee.

"Haverhill will be the poorer place if the branch is forced to close."

Hunt for sex attack youths

A 13-YEAR-OLD girl has been subjected to a sexual assault by a group of youths in Haverhill.

The girl, who was unhurt but distressed by the incident, was approached by a group of four youths who shouted at her before two of them inappropriately touched her.

The incident happened at Wentford Court, Haverhill between 10pm and 10.25pm on Saturday.

The youths are described as white, male, quite tall with London accents and wearing hooded tops. One wore plimsolls.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Victoria Anthistle at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Characters come alive at book day

PRINCESSES and pirates found themselves being taught by the Mad Hatter and a Very Angry Ladybird at a local primary school.

Pupils and staff at Clements Primary School in Haverhill transformed themselves into their favourite storybook characters as part of a day of activities to celebrate World Book Day. All 166 children joined in, with Spiderman, witches, fairies and cowboys also among the outfits on show.

Each pupil brought along a donation for the Royal National Institute for the Deaf.

The Friends of Clements School group also organised a book swap event and classes wrote a chapter to produce a school book, as well as making bookmarks and taking part in other activities. Jane Trampnow, acting headteacher, said: "They have loved it and hopefully it has placed in them a desire to read and just love books."

■ FAMOUS FACES . . . Clements Primary School administration officer Lynn Kiernan dressed as Angelina Ballerina for the World Book Day celebrations while pupil Katelun Dowd, seven, came as Jasmine from Aladdin.

Jobs on the way as firms move in

■ From Page 1

"It is really marvellous to see that if you add up the numbers there are 900 new jobs to come in the next 12 months or so, there are three times as many jobs coming to Haverhill as there are people unemployed.

"It is just fantastic for attracting people into Haverhill.

"People may earn more money in Cambridge, but Haverhill will pay more than the surrounding rural areas and it will be a magnet for work for people in the villages.

"If people come here to work and go to the cinema they are more likely to shop here and it will all help revitalise the town."

But Gordon Mussett, Haverhill town clerk, asked what was being done to create more "white collar" jobs in the town.

Mr Talbot said a cluster of pharmaceutical companies were planned, with more jobs at PhD level on offer.

Thieves take cutter

TWO white men in their 20s, wearing tracksuits and trainers, stole a disc cutter from a building site before leaving in a P-reg red Ford Mondeo.

The theft happened at Turnpike Hill, Withersfield, between 1.15pm and 1.30pm on Tuesday. Call Pc Ryan Harris at Clare police on (01284) 774100.

'Pubs may close' as drinkers stay away

PUBS in Haverhill could be forced to close unless they can turn around a dramatic decline in evening trade.

That's the stark warning from Gordon Mussett, chairman of the Haverhill Pub-watch scheme.

He told members of the Haverhill Partnership Group that pubs which had customers queuing up to get in last year were now closing on a Friday night because of a lack of trade.

During a discussion on how the town's new cinema and restaurant complex, which is due to open later this year, could boost the local evening economy, Mr Mussett said he feared pub closures were inevitable in the current climate.

He said: "Publicans always say they are hard up but when the majority of pubs close on a Friday night because there is not enough business you start to worry.

"Maybe the cinema will bring people back into the town at night instead of going into

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Cambridge. It seems to be a very difficult year for them so far. Eighteen months ago you would queue up to get into The Bell and now it is often closed."

Anne Gower, the new chairman of the partnership group, said: "If you give young people the choice they would go to Cambridge.

"A lot of them perceive that there is nothing for them in Haverhill where they want to go. When the cinema is up and running and the leisure centre is back on stride it might revitalise the town at night."

Steve Currell, who has been landlord of The Woolpack pub in Haverhill for the past six years, agreed trade was down and other landlords in the town had found the same.

He said he had been closing early on Friday nights for several years, but was still busy on Saturdays and lunch times during the week.

"Trade is definitely down everywhere," he said.

"I think people are feeling the increase in mortgage rates and don't have the money to spend. The smoking ban probably has an effect at this time of year as people don't like to stand outside in the cold, but they don't mind in the summer."

He added: "Friday night has never been busy, it's always quiet in the town, but it is even quieter this year. A lot of Haverhill people have changed their drinking habits, but I think it will run its course, these things go in peaks and troughs.

"I am probably one of the busiest pubs, but takings are down on last year. We now do a lot more food and when Tesco comes they are revamping the road outside so we hope to become the first pub in the town with its own frontage."

Mindless vandals continue damage spree

ANOTHER spate of damage offences was reported to Haverhill police over the weekend.

The town was hit by a major vandalism spree in early February when more than 70 vehicles were damaged and three wheelie bins set alight.

The latest incidents all occurred between last Friday and Sunday.

At Castle Lane, a silver Peugeot 206 was damaged sometime between 10pm on Friday and noon the following day, when someone ran over the bonnet and roof.

At Coupals Close, between 8pm on Friday and 8am the following day, two tyres were damaged on a blue BMW 316 left at a parking area.

Around 6.30pm on Saturday in Moon Hall Lane, every glass panel in a telephone box was smashed.

At Hollands Lane between 7.25pm and 7.35pm on Sunday, a bus shelter was damaged.

A group of three youths was seen in the area at the time. They were around 15 years old and one was carrying a baseball bat, one was wearing a grey hooded top, the second a white hooded top and the third a black jacket.

Calls in relation to any of these incidents should be made to Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, where callers can remain anonymous, on 0800 555111.

Gales leave homes and firms in dark

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THOUSANDS of people, including many Clare and Haverhill residents, were left without power on Monday morning as high winds disrupted the region's electricity network.

Clare Middle School was forced to close by mid-morning and many shops in the town centre closed because they had lost power, along with many homes.

Greengrocer John Orbell was planning to launch a ban on plastic bags in his shop – replacing them with paper ones – but lack of power forced him to shut up shop.

He said: "Things did not work out quite as planned.

"Some shops did have partial power, but I had nothing at all.

"All my scales and tills are electric, so I had to close, although I would rather be at work.

"The Bell Hotel staff were told that it could be 24 hours before the power is back on."

A spokesman for EDF Energy said the high winds had caused localised faults which were being dealt with, but forecasts of further strong gusts meant more disruption was likely.

Speaking on Monday, the spokesman said: "We have brought in extra staff to help restore supplies as quickly and safely as possible.

"Our latest figures show that about 6,000 customers are without supply because of high voltage faults to the network.

"EDF Energy Networks engineers are due to investigate an interruption to the electricity supply in Wrattling Road, Haverhill, which has left 27 customers without power.

"Staff are also working to restore supply to about 10 customers remaining without supply in Clare, after a fault on an overhead line caused power to be interrupted to about 1,000 customers.

"Our call centre staff have spoken with 3,000 customers this morning and we will continue to try and keep customers updated as the day progresses.

"Further high winds are predicted this week and if they are as strong as forecast, they are likely to cause damage to our overhead power lines.

"We continue to monitor the situation and make preparations as part of our on-going emergency planning."

Police link spate of vehicle crimes

POLICE are linking two thefts of tools and a break-in from vehicles parked in the same area of Haverhill in a single night.

Thieves broke into a red Iveco van left in a parking area at Mallow Walk between 5pm on Sunday and 8.30am on Monday, and stole tools.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Sgt Sarah Bartley at the Haverhill North Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774100.

At Betony Walk, Haverhill, between 3.30pm on Sunday and 6.45am on Monday, a white Transit van was broken into by smashing a window and a drill was

Young football team's funding is in the bag

A YOUTH football team from Haverhill has scored a winner in the latest round of grants awarded to local groups and projects by Havebury Housing Partnership's Community Investment Fund.

Haverhill Rovers Under-13s team has received £733 to buy new kit bags for each of the 16 squad members and new training equipment including footballs, bibs, nets, corner flags and spikes.

Under-13s assistant manager Dave Wilbraham said: "The grant from Havebury means a huge amount to the club as we only began playing at the beginning of the season and up until now we haven't had the proper training equipment.

"I'm sure the new gear will boost the players' morale and undoubtedly help performance."

The team plays in the Cambridge and District Colts League and trains every Monday evening at Haverhill's Samuel Ward Arts and Technology School.

All under-13s from the town and the surrounding area are welcome to attend practice sessions.

Since Havebury's Community Investment Fund was set up in 2002, a total of £298,061 has been awarded in grants to support 120 community projects.

The cash has also helped local groups and projects to attract more than £4.5 million in matched funding.

Bike-a-thon challenge for charity

MEMBERS of a new health club and spa will be trying to keep their exercise bikes and treadmills on the move for 12 hours to do their bit for Sport Relief. The Atlantic Health & Spa at Houghton Hall, between Cavendish and Clare, has organised a "bike-a-thon" and a "tread-a-thon" to run from 8am to 8pm tomorrow. David Thurkettle, the club's manager, said: "We want to keep the bike or treadmill going continuously between eight in the morning and eight at night with everyone having a ten minute slot. "Hopefully if we get enough people involved we'll be able to keep both machines going continuously. A 10-minute slot on either the bike or the treadmill should be long enough for most people to complete a Sport Relief Mile." Participants are being asked to make a minimum donation of £2 to Sport Relief for each 10-minute slot, in the hope that many hundreds of pounds will be raised. Non-members who would like to take part can call the club and sign up for a slot or call in and make a donation.

Leslie Berger, club director, said "Our members are signing up but we'd love to see new faces taking part as well. The projects that Sport Relief funds help vulnerable people both here in the UK and in the world's poorest countries and are well worth supporting." Anyone who would like to take part should call the club on (01787) 279009.

Funding for new homes welcomed

MORE new affordable homes are to be built in Haverhill after funding was secured to build more than 160 across St Edmundsbury.

Housing providers working with St Edmundsbury Borough Council have successfully secured £3.5 million for 161 affordable homes to be built over the next three years - while another 74 are also in the pipeline.

The borough council is a strategic housing authority, which determines housing need and then works with registered social landlords who build the homes, to bring schemes forward for Housing Corporation funding.

The £3.5m allocation from the Housing Corporation, announced last week, will be used to complete new housing schemes throughout St Edmundsbury which will be delivered within the next two to three years.

Work on preparing another seven schemes, which would provide a further 74 units, is continuing. These additional schemes include sites at Chalkstone Way, Haverhill and two in Bury St Edmunds,

Cllr Nigel Aitkens, deputy council leader, said: "We are absolutely delighted to have assured funding for 161 new affordable homes in the borough.

"The further seven schemes which will bring forward another 74 homes in the borough are a priority for both St Edmundsbury and our housing partners and we will be working hard together to make sure that they are delivered."

St Edmundsbury's Overview and Scrutiny Committee was updated on affordable housing at their last meeting.

Dance team aiming for US championship glory

HIP HOP dancer Henry Russell is hoping to dance his way to a stage career after winning a place in world dance finals in Las Vegas in August.

Henry, 17, is part of a team of seven dancers from the Bodywork Dance Studio in Cambridge – aged between 15 and 17 – who finished third at a UK dance event in Watford to qualify for the world championship in the USA. To realise their dreams, the team have to raise £5,000 in sponsorship money between them to pay for the trip.

Henry, of Salisbury Court, Haverhill, won a three-year scholarship to study dance after taking up dancing when he was just eight. The former Castle Manor Upper School pupil has already danced in stage shows and with the Russian Ballet.

His proud father Steve Russell said: "When I saw him play I knew he was never going to be a footballer. He has two left feet and cannot kick with either of them. He wants to be a professional dancer and has worked really hard at it."

■ CHAMPIONSHIP HOPEFUL . . . hip hop dancer Henry Russell.

Lindon Barr, 15, who lives near Saffron Walden, is the group's choreographer, and the other dancers all come from the Cambridge area.

Lindon, who starts full-time at Bodywork in September, said they were all thrilled about the trip, but realised they did not have long to find the sponsorship money.

He said: "It is amazing, we are all really excited about going, it is like a dream come true."

Anyone who wants to help the team can ring Lindon on (01799) 550612, e-mail elementzdancetroupe@hotmail.co.uk, or visit myspace.com/elementzdancetroupe

Egg hunt for Easter

MORE than 500 chocolate eggs will be up for the taking at an annual Easter Egg Hunt which is in its 28th year.

Families are invited to turn out whatever the weather at 2pm on March 21, Good Friday, at the Great Meadow next to the Community Centre in Arms Lane, Kedington for the event.

Kedington

COUNCIL representatives will hold a special meeting at the library to discuss the Strategic Local Plan next Tuesday, as well as on April 1 and April 15 between 2pm and 4pm, and on April 12 between 10am and 2pm.

■ The monthly meeting of the Garden Society was held at the Legion Hall on Tuesday evening when a well-attended meeting was warmly welcomed by the chairman Madge Pelling, who also introduced the evening's speaker, Joe Sharman of Monksilver Nursery. He gave a talk, illustrated with an excellent selection of slides, predominantly of primroses, with some dating back hundreds of years. One admires his outstanding memory to name the numerous varieties without resorting to any notes, and one can understand the reasons for inviting him to talk at various locations in Europe. The nursery also specialises in bulbs, ferns, grasses and sedges, herbaceous perennials, shrubs and trees. It is open on Fridays and Saturdays only from 10am to 4pm. Mr Sharman also brought along a selection of primroses for sale.

At the conclusion of the talk, Mr Sharman was asked a number of questions relating to primroses by his audience, and the chairman thanked him for an interesting and informative talk.

The speaker for the next meeting, on April 1, at the Legion Hall at 7.30pm, will be Trevor Wilson, speaking on Some Cambridge College Gardens.

■ At their March meeting, held at the Legion Hall, WI members planned and looked forward to the 85th anniversary of their group.

The speaker was Cherry Fisher, who told the exciting tale of how she and her husband discovered a huge cache of gold and silver coins, dating from the time of Elizabeth I until the Civil War. Subsequent dealings with the police, the coroner's court and the British Museum were lengthy, but fascinating, and the British Museum and Saffron Walden Museum had their pick of the coins.

Members were delighted to see a selection of coins, which the Fishers were allowed to keep.

■ Diary – Sunday, Palm Sunday, Stourhead Benefice Service, Great Thurlow, 10am, including Palms and Procession; Church in the Field Service, Community Centre, 10.30am.

Monday, March 17, RBL Bingo, Legion Hall, 8pm. Tuesday, March 18, annual whist drive in aid of the blind, Legion Hall, 7.30pm. Thursday, March 20, RBL general meeting, Legion Hall, 7.30pm; school Easter egg hunt, at the school, 3pm.

■ A meeting of the Parish Church Restoration Committee was held on Monday evening at Limeridge

House by kind invitation of Pat and John Swan, when a warm welcome was voiced by the chairman Daphne Smith, who also included thanks to all who had helped in organising the winter supper on the previous Friday evening, attended by 68 people at the community centre. The three-course meal has received many compliments, along with the service provided. Following the meal, a mini race night was held, with races organised by Steve Brown, supported by Rob Nicholas and four bookies, while some came appropriately dressed for a race meeting. All in all it was a most enjoyable evening. At the meeting on Monday, arrangements and plans were discussed for future fundraising events, including the annual duck race on the May Bank Holiday, the annual open gardens on June 1, and the possibility of repeating an open air concert, which was quite a success last year.

Arrangements will be published nearer the time.

West Wrattling

Having kept charges at the same level for the last two years, the village hall management committee agreed it was necessary to make a small increase from January 2008. This will help costs relating to health and safety requirements and upkeep of the building. For regular village meetings, this will mean £16 a session, rather than £14. A children's party only costs £34 and removes all concern over smashed ornaments or lack of space!

■ There are running sessions every Monday from 9.30 to 10.30am in West Wrattling Village Hall, using a combination of simple step patterns to strengthen the heart and gentle stretches to increase flexibility. It also concentrates on improving muscle tone and posture. Try a session for free – usual fee is £5 per session.

SAM'S THE WORD

News from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College

AS WE now enter spring, everyone is busy finishing off work, with many different events going on across the school

■ Last Thursday, the music department held an Easter concert which showcased the variety of talents throughout the school years. It featured many types of music, ranging from the Year 9 blues band to the school orchestra performing three songs on the night, including the Match of the Day theme tune.

The audience was also lucky enough to hear Mr Hewitt, a private music teacher who teaches woodwind on a weekly basis, accompanying the musicians. All the performers are either GCSE or A-level music students. Miss Wright, head of music, said the night was a huge success and she congratulated all those who performed.

There are also some forthcoming music performances with a Stars In Their Eyes concert on St George's Day, as well as May's Musicality in May.

■ A parent's evening was recently held at the school to check on the progress of gifted and talented students. The scheme sees several Year 8 pupils from the local middle schools advance a year to take their exams 12 months early. The event was well supported, with many parents learning about their children's progress and forthcoming targets.

■ Last week saw the school hold an options evening for Year 9 pupils and their parents to find out more information about GCSEs and choosing the right subjects. This involved parents and pupils learning more about the courses and the possible careers associated with the subjects.

The evening also featured a talk from Mr Lay on the importance of the right choice. Miss Harrington thought the evening had a really good atmosphere.

MANORISMS

News from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College

THERE'S just one week until the much-awaited America trip! Students going on the trip will travel around the continent to Phoenix, Los Angeles, Las Vegas and the Grand Canyon, stopping off at places such as Universal Studios during their eight-day adventure.

■ Several students travel to London to watch the musical Billy Elliot. Year 10 and 11 GCSE drama students were given priority to watch the play as they are required to watch and then review a professional play as part of their coursework. Other pupils interested in the play were given the chance to go too.

■ Many exams have taken place at the college recently. Year 9s recently took their mock SATs in English, maths and science, while selected Year 10s and 11s took maths and science modular exams, which will go towards their final mark for GCSE.

■ Suffolk's first Young Chamber has recently started canvassing for chamber executives, with posts including president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

■ GCSE and BTEC PE students recently travelled to Portland Road, home of Ipswich Town FC, to see where qualifications in sport can take them, including various career paths. There was a focus on coaching and training, which included a tour of the grounds to show what the football club has to offer the community.

■ Castle Manor students competed in the annual 3v3 basketball tournament at the leisure centre last week. Both teams played well, especially the boys who had to play 10 matches instead of five.

MPs bid to reward hard-working hero

AN MP is looking for a local hero to join him at a national award ceremony at the House of Commons.

West Suffolk MP, Richard Spring, is seeking nominations for the annual event, hosted by the Experience Corps, which recognises the community contributions made by older volunteers.

The Experience Corps is an independent not-for-profit company which was set up in 2001 to encourage people aged 50 and over to offer their skills and experience as volunteers.

All the local heroes who are nominated for the awards are being recognised for the hard work and support they give their communities.

Mr Spring said: "West Suffolk is very lucky to have so many people who spend a considerable amount of their time and energy helping others."

"I urge everyone to nominate someone who they think deserves the recognition and thanks for their contribution."

To nominate a hero, write to Mr Spring at the House of Commons, London SW1A 0AA. Nominees should be over 50 years old and live in the West Suffolk constituency.

Celebrating history of the computer age

Peter Snow, of Tomorrow's World fame, was in Haverhill last week filming at the town's new Centre for Computing History.

Raw Television is making a new science/history series for Channel 5 and the History Channel presented by Peter Snow, to be televised later this year. The series is all about great British scientists and engineers who were the unsung heroes behind some of the most remarkable feats of British technology in recent decades.

Episodes will include the first mobile phone network, the Lotus 25, the Intercity 125 Train, the Harrier Jump Jet, Black Arrow – Britain's first home-launched satellite, and Elite – the first 3D role playing computer game.

The Centre for Computing History was contacted by Raw Television which was looking for vintage computers to make the programme on Elite. They did not expect to find everything they required in one place, but the Haverhill museum was able to provide the lot – a BBC Micro, Acorn Atom, Apple 11 and other items from the Elite era of the early 1980s.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Acornsoft Elite was the first in a new generation of 3D space games featuring interstellar travel in a distant cluster of galaxies. It was arguably the first home computer game to use 3D vector graphics with hidden lines removed. Written by David Braben and Ian Bell, two undergraduates at Jesus College, Cambridge, Elite was released for the BBC Micro in 1984 and sold over 150,000 copies.

A 1980s office set was created at the Centre for Computing History for Peter Snow to use. This office immersed him in computing history with items like old computers, gadgetry, disks, cassette players and keyboards from the early to mid-80s. The centre was even asked to program some of the machines. Luckily one of the directors, Jason Fitzpatrick, possessed the skills to create instructions in BASIC and assembly code for the BBC Micro.

The team were so impressed with Jason's familiarity with the subject that he was interviewed by Peter Snow and will feature in the final programme. Peter Snow said: "The Centre for ■ INSPIRATIONAL INITIATIVE . . . Peter Snow with Jason Fitzpatrick of The Centre for Computing History.

CP.

Computing History is an inspirational initiative. It is a wonderful idea and an extremely valuable resource, especially as most of the machines work! What an impressive and quite remarkable collection, and how forward-thinking of this group of people. Jason's knowledge of the subject is outstanding!

"I have asked to be kept informed of future developments and will be taking a keen interest in the centre's progress. I wish it every success."

To find out more about the progress of the Centre for Computing History and influence future exhibitions visit: www.computinghistory.org.uk

The website provides information about how to donate to the museum's appeal and fundraising campaign.

The Centre for Computing History has been established in Haverhill to create a permanent, public exhibition that tells the story of the Information Age. At its core is an internationally significant collection of computers, related artefacts, memorabilia and associated materials.

The museum is the concept of Jason Fitzpatrick who has been amassing items for the collection for 20 years. A number of local business people, including Nic Rumsey of Haverhill Business Park, have become involved, a steering committee has been formed and a website launched. Emails have been pouring in from across the UK, Europe and the USA and the museum has an interim home.

Haverhill is a suitable location because the core collection already exists there, the area lacks any substantial heritage provision, and it is close to Cambridge where Charles Babbage, widely known as the "father of computing", read Mathematics at Trinity College.

Mr Fitzpatrick said: "We hope to create a world-class visitor attraction in Haverhill that will dramatically alter the town's profile. We believe the Centre for Computing History will act as a powerful catalyst for the town's ongoing economic and cultural renaissance."

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

New county chief's pay beats PM's

SUFFOLK County Council's new chief executive has been named as the boss of the soon-to-be abolished Bedfordshire County Council. And Andrea Hill, 44, is to receive a controversial £220,000 salary from Suffolk's largest employer. Her paypacket will be more than £30,000 above the £189,000 salary of Prime Minister Gordon Brown, and 50 per cent more than that of her predecessor, Mike More. He joins London's Westminster City Council in April. The appointment of his successor will be formally confirmed at a council meeting on March 27. Mrs Hill, who has over 20 years experience of local government, grew up on the north Essex-Suffolk border and began her career in Thurrock. She has been Bedfordshire's chief executive since 2004 and has held a number of senior posts in other councils including chief executive of Colchester Borough Council – where her high salary was also criticised – deputy chief executive of North Herts District Council and assistant chief executive of Cambridge City Council.

Charity crowned top workplace

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A DEBT-ADVICE charity with centres in Haverhill and Cambridge has been named the UK's "best small company to work for".

The Sunday Times prize for Christians Against Poverty (CAP) follows a host of other industry awards for the national charity which said it proved people in Haverhill were being offered the "best possible" service.

Henry Wilson, Haverhill's CAP centre manager, said: "Winning this award is fantastic news not only for us, but also for our clients."

"With the award proving how motivated and enthusiastic we are as a workforce, we are convinced this quality is passed on to our clients."

"We pride ourselves on giving clients in Haverhill the best possible debt advice and the support that they need to turn their finances and lives around and we are pleased that this award goes some way to show the award-winning service we offer."

"We also want to stress that if there are still people in Haverhill who would like to be helped by the best charity to work for in the UK, we'd be more than happy to."

"Our service is completely free and we work with anyone from the local community, whether they are Christian or not, so I'd urge anyone in financial difficulty to call."

Now in their sixth year, the awards have come to be recognised as the benchmark for assessing different companies.

Employees anonymously answer wide-ranging surveys about their company, and the results are used to give an insight into the inner-workings of many organisations across the country.

CAP, which has been operating its specialist debt counselling centre in Haverhill for more than two years, was particularly praised for its leadership, with 97 per cent of employees rating the quality of management as good or excellent.

Personal growth was another area that was singled out by workers as being excellent, with 95 per cent agreeing that the job was good for their development.

Kind act takes turn for worse

AN ACT of kindness ended in violence after a late-night reveller turned on a man he had been helping, a court has heard.

Lewis Smith, of Cangle Junction, Haverhill, went to the aid of two people carrying a drunken man to a vehicle in Cambridge city centre in the early hours of February 17.

CCTV captured Smith first helping carry the man – then turn on him with a head-butt and punches, city magistrates were told.

Police who saw part of the attack arrested Smith. But, interviewed later he could remember little of the incident.

The cause of Smith's inability to recall the episode was not alcohol, Jeremy Kendal told the court in mitigation. The 22 year old suffered a brain injury in a hit and run accident two years ago which had led to memory problems, Mr Kendal added.

Smith, who has an assault on a police officer on his record from last summer, admitted carrying out the attack and had been "disappointed and ashamed" when he viewed the CCTV and saw for himself what he had done, the court heard.

Sentence was adjourned until next month pending probation reports.

Man denies glass-in-face attack on fellow drinker

Admiral takes Crufts in his stride

A WELL behaved whippet has walked away with a prize from his first visit to Crufts.

Trainer Sarah Connatty, who runs the Haverhill-based Chipper School for Dogs, took her whippet Silkdance Red Admiral to the prestigious show where he won fifth place in the Good Citizen Dog Scheme class.

Sarah was making only her second visit to Crufts with her own dogs, although she has shown other people's dogs there before.

She said: "I was really pleased. It was wonderful and he behaved beautifully, he just took it all in his stride." Sarah and business partner Sue McAuliffe have been running Chipper School for Dogs for the past two years and train around 50 dogs a week at classes in Kedington on a Wednesday and Withersfield on a Thursday. For details call (01799) 584373.

■ ON DEBUT . . . Sarah Connatty with Silkdance Red Admiral. CP.

A HAVERHILL man accused of shoving a glass into the face of another drinker in an unprovoked attack has denied the offence.

The incident is alleged to have taken place outside The Bull public house as the victim handed back a mobile phone to Ian Hutchinson, which had been dropped on the ground.

Hutchinson, 35, this week went on trial at Ipswich Crown Court where he has pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm.

Prosecutor Ian Pells told the jury that as Hutchinson, of Connaught Road, Haverhill, left the pub on July 1 last year, he dropped his mobile phone.

Another customer who was sitting outside the pub, Christopher Robbins, bent down and picked up the phone. But as he handed it back he was assaulted without warning.

Hutchinson was said to have pushed a pint beer glass into Mr Robbins' face, causing a serious cut above his eye and other lacerations.

Mr Pells said that despite denying any involvement in the attack, Hutchinson's clothes were seen to be bloodstained by a female friend who told police she had called at his flat later the same evening.

Landlord of The Bull, Clifford Webb, told the court how he had been drinking inside the pub with friends and had escorted Hutchinson off the premises following the incident.

Mr Webb denied defence suggestions that the man he escorted from the pub had not been Hutchinson.

Pc Rebecca Lower, who investigated the incident, said she interviewed Hutchinson on two occasions before he was charged on September 1. He had denied being involved in or seeing any attack on Mr Robbins.

Hutchinson, who suffered severe injuries when he was the victim of a hit and run accident in November 2006 and has been unable to work since, told the jury: "I don't go out socialising because if I get a knock I could be back into hospital."

The former forklift driver said that after walking from his flat to The Bull he had met with friends before returning home about 15 minutes later.

Hutchinson said: "I went straight home and lay on my bed. I took a sleeping tablet and that is where I woke up Monday morning."

He denied attacking Mr Robbins or being aware of any disturbance at The Bull.

Terry Spooner, who was one of the friends Hutchinson had met at The Bull, said he saw him leave after saying he felt unwell and was unaware of any kind of disturbance or attack.

The jury has retired to consider a verdict.

Cracking start to weekend

IT WAS a long time since they took part in school sports day, but three intrepid competitors battled it out in an egg and spoon race to launch a supermarket's Sport Aid fundraising campaign. Edwin Adrienne, duty store manager at Sainsbury's store in Haycocks Road, Haverhill, was the winner of the early-morning race, held before the store opened at 8am, closely followed by Weekly News reporter Jo Deeks, who pipped Haverhill Echo reporter Derek Bishop at the post after he dropped his egg. The three expect to raise at least £300 in sponsorship for Comic Relief and anyone who wants to sponsor Jo Deeks can call (01440) 703891 or email jo.deeks@cambridge-news.co.uk. The event aimed to give a great start to the store's Sport Relief weekend of events, which runs from tomorrow until Sunday. Millennium Stars Majorettes will give a demonstration and collect money in buckets, with half going to the troupe and the other half to Sport Relief. There will also be an exercise bike in the store foyer so that customers and staff members can do their Sport Relief mile. On Sunday, Sainsbury's staff members and local Slimming World members will take part in a sponsored walk to Withersfield and other staff members will cycle to the Coldhams Lane, Cambridge, Sainsbury's store and back.

Sounds of England

HAVERHILL Choral Society is looking forward to welcoming both its regular supporters and some new converts to hear An English Concert on Saturday.

The event will take place at the Old Independent Church in Hamlet Road, Haverhill, starting at 7.30pm, and the programme includes a lesser-known work by Vaughn Williams entitled In Windsor Forest, to mark the 50th anniversary of the death of the composer.

It also features The Music Makers by Elgar, a beautiful work with many varying moods and contrasting passages.

Gadget stolen

A SONAR cat repellent was stolen from a garden in Haverhill. The theft happened at Seymour Drive, Haverhill, between Wednesday, March 5 and Sunday, March 9. Anyone with information should contact PCSO Gordon Walker at the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Homes scheme

PLANS to build two, two-storey detached homes with associated access after demolishing the existing structure at land to the rear of 3 The Villas, Withersfield Road, Haverhill, have been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Plans are submitted

PROPOSALS to build a two-storey detached house and detached cart lodge, as well as alterations to the existing access, at 34 School Road, Kedington, have been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Charity draw attracts England football star

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FORMER England and Ipswich Town footballer Kevin Beattie will be the guest of honour at a Haverhill charity event the night before the Blues face local rivals Norwich City at home.

On Saturday, April 12, Haverhill's Ipswich Town Independent Supporters Club will hold a special night at the Rose Tavern Public House with an auction and raffle, followed by karaoke and a chance to meet the football legend.

The evening is open to all, not just Ipswich Town fans, and the proceeds will be split between the Multiple Sclerosis Society and the supporters club.

Organiser Malcolm Thompson said: "On the night there will be some great items to win and bid for and already we have had some great promises from top personalities in both the football and music world."

"A list of items will be on our website once we have them all finalised but one thing is for sure, there will be items worth bidding for!"

"To date we have up for auction: tea at the Ritz, a signed pennant from Barcelona FC, a large signed framed picture from Sir Cliff Richard, a £200 champagne punting trip, a signed Frank Skinner shirt, clothing from one of the Coronation Street stars, a signed Sir Bobby Robson book, a special donation from Carol Vorderman along with something special from Ed Lay of the Editors who is a honorary member of our club, so something for everyone."

The event will also include a raffle with prizes on offer such as a camera, watch, cufflinks, jewellery, hamper, Fulton birdcage umbrella as used by the Queen, Filofax, free subscription to Love Films for a year worth up to £250 plus loads more to win along with the usual beer, wine and chocolates.

Anyone wanting more information on the supporters club, the event or a full list of prizes, should visit its website, www.itisc.org.uk

Helpers offered 'cash' for questions

VOLUNTEERS are being offered shopping vouchers in exchange for getting feedback for a housing group.

They will have to contact 100 Havebury Housing Partnership residents across St Edmundsbury each month by phone and ask them three survey questions on their levels of satisfaction with Havebury, its staff and their home.

A minimum of 10 people are needed to commit to the group for a year. Volunteers will be given telesales training and paid in high street vouchers for their efforts.

Sarah Edison, communities and tenants' adviser at Havebury, said: "The survey will play an important role in helping us identify those areas where we are performing well, and where we need to improve our services."

Potential survey volunteers should call (01284) 722033 or email sarah.edison@havebury.com for more information.

From war to love – just not cricket

CENTRE Stage is back at Haverhill Arts Centre with Outside Edge, a comedy about life, cricket and other important stuff by Richard Harris.

There are performances Friday and Saturday at 7.30pm.

■ Charlie Wilson's War (15) is an adaptation of George Crile's best-seller about a congressman's efforts to stop the Red Army overtaking Afghanistan. Come along on Monday at either 1.30pm or 7.45pm to view this intelligent political American film of the highest class.

■ Haverhill Keyboard Club presents Alastair Kiernan on Tuesday at 7.30pm, whose show offers everything from light classics, music of the 20s, 30s and 40s, to modern ballads and hits of today.

■ You might need a tissue for PS I Love You (12A) showing on Wednesday at 7.45pm. It's based on the debut novel of Cecelia Ahern about a young widow who discovers her late husband left her 10 messages intended to help ease her pain following his death.

■ To book call (01440) 714140 or visit www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

ONE of Cambridge's most promising bands, The Shivers, will be launching their news single at The Graduate tomorrow. The band have been one of the biggest crowd pullers on the local music scene and take inspiration from blues, rock and country sources like The Rolling Stones, Creedence Clearwater Revival and Johnny Cash. The new single Merry Go Round is one of their most upbeat efforts to date and they've promised a "raucous" launch party to match it. "We've got a real rag-tag bag of influences and on this record we think we have created our most seamless blend yet," says slide guitarist and ukulele player Gaz. "This is pretty much a dry-run for the next album, so watch out." The single is released on limited edition seven inch vinyl and on iTunes. Support at the gig comes from Delta Blues specialist Tom Colborn and lo-fi indie pop troupe Magoo.

Childhood dream is a giant act to follow

By Nik Shelton

TWO friends will realise a childhood dream this week when their opera David and Goliath echoes around Queens' College Chapel.

Cambridge composer Samuel Hogarth, who wrote the new work with librettist Guy Perry, said: "When we were very young, about 9 or 10, we started thinking about the idea. We wanted to do it as a musical, I don't know how much we had thought it through.

"I think I had gone to see a musical for the first time and I thought it was cool so being an objectionable and precocious kid I thought, 'I can do that!'

"We came up with about two numbers and got no further. I had completely forgotten about it and then when I got this commission we remembered it again."

That commission came from the New Chamber Opera company based in Oxford where Sam studied music. Since 2006 he has been the college musician at Queens', which has supported him in the difficult task of getting the production off the ground.

"There are plenty of people writing operas and it's never died as an art but these things are just incredibly expensive to stage,"

■ GIANT ACT . . . David prepares to meet Goliath. CP says Sam. "It's very hard to do unless you have somebody backing you which we are very lucky to have with Queens'."

The two friends behind the piece bring different aspects to the work. Sam's experiences include writing for the National Youth Orchestra Sinfonietta, premiers at the Royal Academy of Music and contributing two jazz piano pieces to the recent Angelina Jolie film A Mighty Heart. Guy is completing a doctorate in history and admits to a fascination with religion, ancient myths and psychology.

"We talked about it a lot and then there was a lot of email tennis," says Sam on their writing process.

"We worked out a rough outline and argued a bit about what should go in what scene and how we would create the drama.

"We probably spent about two or three months on that stage and then he started sending me a scene at a time and I would say, 'This won't work to music' or 'I need some more text here' until we got there."

The music for the piece has been inspired by the composers Britten and Tippett and looks at the biblical tale of David and Goliath from a new angle.

"What it does is take a critical look at the story, so instead of David being a hero and Goliath being a big evil giant the idea is Goliath is a myth and David is in fact quite a nasty slippery character who uses that myth to manoeuvre himself into a position of power.

"The plot is about the relationship between David and King Saul who is possessed by evil spirits. David comes to Saul and plays his harp to calm him down and he sees him as a way of getting power."

■ David and Goliath is at Queens' College Chapel from tonight to Sunday, March 16, at 7.30pm. Tickets £6-£12.

UNCERTAIN house prices, spiralling living costs, and the threat of recession could all mean the 'property boom' of the last decade is over.

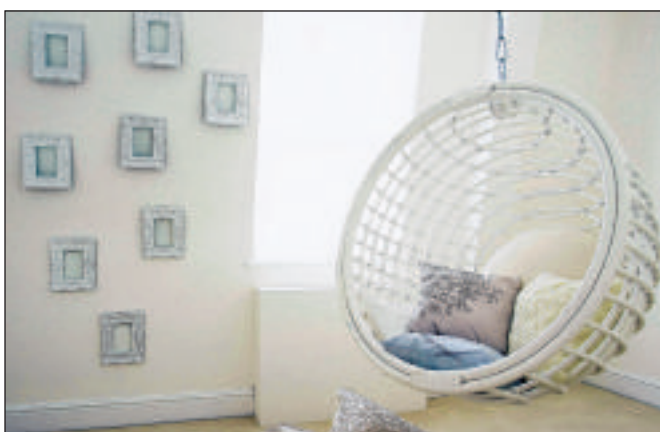

Experts predict that buying and selling homes will become increasingly difficult as the credit crunch bites. But that doesn't mean you've lost out on your dream home, because, guess what? You could already be living in it.

It's amazing what improvements can achieve – whether they're investments such as a new kitchen or bathroom – or simply giving your home a spring facelift with a lick of paint and some new accessories.

And you might be surprised to find that you're probably not using the space you have. Recent research by Yorkshire Bank found that while house buyers stretch their finances in the pursuit of more room, most end up not using it. The poll discovered that one in four people had at least one room that remained largely unused – usually a spare bedroom or dining room, lying empty until Christmas.

■ STYLISH . . . careful improvement will add value to your house.

■ DECORATION . . . make your home an ideal one.

Gary Lumby, head of retail for Yorkshire Bank, says: "While location still tops the charts of 'must-haves', space is now the new frontier."

However, once we've got it – and in most cases paid a premium for it – we don't often use it the way we intended.

"So instead of moving house every time they need more space, a significant number of people are looking at houses they can grow into and extend."

Making a home more comfortable and desirable – and ensuring all the space works hard – so it's more enjoyable to live in can't be a bad move. Also, it'll pay dividends if you finally decide to put it on the market.

"The biggest mistake people make is not keeping their house in good condition by carrying out regular maintenance," says celebrity builder, Tommy Walsh, who's a DIY advisor to Wickes.

"Keeping up with repairs is vital, not just so that it's comfortable to live in, but also, if you decide you want to move, then its condition will really count."

"If prospective buyers see leaking pipes and flaking paintwork they'll worry that other more major jobs – like subsidence, damp patches and cracks – have also been neglected – potentially landing them with big bills if they buy your property."

For top tips on home DIY projects and advice on getting the best out of tradespeople there's a new Wickes booklet, How to Cope with Building Works, available at its stores nationwide or downloadable from www.wickes.co.uk

In a race you run faster to win!

In a booming property market 'Sole Agency' is a way of reducing agency fees with a fair degree of confidence that your property will sell, but when the market slows you sometimes need to look for a way to spur things on!

Nothing concentrates an estate agents mind better than making them think that they may not get paid, so by introducing an element of competition we know that you will increase your chances of selling. At Move To The Future we relish the challenge and race to win.

If your current estate agent has gone off the pace, call us today and we will be pleased to add the competitive element. Our 'multi-agency' fees are extremely keen and we have some special incentives available to attract people to your home.

Ford has got it all in Focus

ONLY one body panel from the old Ford Focus has been retained in the new – the roof.

Somehow when everything looks so different with the new car, retaining the roof seems slightly odd but I got the information from no less a personage in the Ford organisation than Igor Fishbein. Igor is a German-speaking Russian whose obvious talents rapidly took him to the halls of power in Ford's European operation.

Igor was responsible for the interior of the new car and has an ingeniously simple approach to problems. For example, it was decided to raise the shoulder height of the windows across the design, so whereas you and I would have set to on the back of an envelope to raise all the side panels, Igor took the other way out. He simply lowered the seat by 10cms.

Thinking like that obviously got Igor where he now is and he applied similarly ingenious logic to the rest of the interior. Now the Focus exudes a certain quality, the instruments are fun to look at with twinkling chrome here and there,

FIRST DRIVE

Latest effort is even better

while the centre console wraps round the driver apparently causing him to think he is in some kind of spaceship.

Both petrol and diesel engines will be featured in the new car, orders for which are being taken now. Ford says it expects the 1.6-litre Zetec petrol to be the best seller with the diesels taking a relatively small amount of the market. This is in marked contrast with other makers who tell me diesel is the thing and this is where there big sales lie.

I found the 2.0-litre diesel in both estate and hatchback form, a first class package. There is a rush of noise when the diesel is accelerated hard but on the positive side the acceleration is positively startling. Petrol versions are equally nippy but have the advantage of greater smoothness and silence.

The estate version offers a very generous rear end with tie-down rings on the cargo floor. The hatchback also has a roomy boot area which with folding rear seats offers a considerable amount of flexibility.

With an on the road price starting at £11,945 the new car is technically £250 more than the old but as it throws in electronic traction control as standard Ford reckons it is actually the same. To get a more realistic idea of price the Zetec, which is considered to be the best seller, comes in an £14,695 and the Titanium flagship of the range costs £15,445 upwards.

Specification levels include the Studio, Style, Zetec, Titanium and ST.

Basically . . .

A fresh look and feel for an old favourite. The top end of the range is now facing stubborn opposition from most makers and might not find it quite so easy to retain its position at the top end of the sales tree.

Renault makes an impact in Geneva

NEARLY two years into its growth plan, Renault Commitment 2009, the fruits of the Renault Group's unprecedented product offensive continue relentlessly.

Following a raft of unveilings at the Geneva and Frankfurt motor shows last year, this year's Swiss show has seen the launch of four new models from the French firm. There has also been an announcement on the subject of Renault's value brand, Dacia (see below).

■ THE RENAULT LAGUNA GT . . . four-wheel steer on the saloon and sporty estate.

■ THE KOLEOS . . . Renault's first compact SUV.

The two new Renault models at the show are the eagerly-anticipated Twingo Renaultsport and the Koleos, the company's first compact 4x4. Sharing the limelight will be the new 'GT' performance version of the Laguna, with its four-wheel-steer chassis honed by Renaultsport.

■ THE RENAULT TWINGO RENAULTSPORT . . . nippy hot hatch.

Completing the quartet is arguably one of the company's most striking concept cars, the Megane Coupe Concept. Following on from the unveiling of the stunning Laguna Coupé Concept at Frankfurt last October, the Megane version is definitely more adventurous and has proved something of a show-stopper at the renowned Geneva Motor Show which always has a sensat-ional design or two.

Branson calls for fuel cell infrastructure to be set up

■ LIFECAR . . . a zero-emission car from Morgan.

VIRGIN boss Sir Richard Branson has called on the UK Government to create hydrogen fuel filling stations to help the fight against climate change.

The Virgin chairman also appealed to governments worldwide to build hydrogen garages.

His call came as Virgin announced that it was teaming up with car giant General Motors to offer zero-emissions hydrogen fuel cars as part of Virgin's limo service for first class passengers.

The first of three of these cars will be tested out in Los Angeles and then a further three will be trialled in New York.

Virgin wants to bring the cars to London but there are no hydrogen filling stations in the capital as yet.

Sir Richard said: "Our mission to be the sustainable airline is clear, both on the ground and in the air. Partnerships such as this with General Motors shows that we are pioneering in the aviation industry when it comes to reducing emissions at every stage of our passengers' journey."

Sir Richard went on: "We are calling upon governments world wide, not just the UK and the US, to assist our businesses by building hydrogen filling stations in key cities so that drivers can fill up their cars more easily.

"As a first step, existing filling stations could add renewable energy pumps alongside other fuel pumps."

General Motors planning vice president Dr Larry Burns said that the deal with Virgin represented "a great partnership".

Meanwhile a new emission-free concept car is to be launched by the Morgan Motor Company, it was revealed this week.

The Morgan LifeCar, which is powered by a hydrogen fuel cell, has been unveiled at the 2008 Geneva International Motor Show.

The aim of the concept car is to "demonstrate that a zero-emission vehicle can also be fun to drive", according to the Worcestershire-based company's website.

"The combination of performance, range and fuel economy will allow a sporting driver of the future to demonstrate a concern for the environment," the website said.

Dacia Sandero all set for UK market

Just four years after the launch of the Logan, the Dacia story continues with Sandero, an affordable, spacious and robust five-door hatchback.

Depending on the market, Dacia's 2008 line-up features five vehicles: Logan saloon, Logan MCV (seven-seat estate), Sandero, Logan Van and Logan Pick-up. The brand's dramatic rise continued in 2007, with overall growth of 17.2 per cent worldwide. Most notably, growth was up 67.9 per cent in Western Europe, thanks in no small part to the success of the Logan MCV.

The launch of the Dacia Sandero means that 2008 will be a key year in the company's expansion. Launched alongside the new model was a new logo, moving a little more upmarket with the aim to convince buyers that it is a serious contender. Dacia is also thinking carefully about its expansion as the Romanian manufacturer is proposing to only launch vehicles in a new market that are suited to the nation's driver's requirements.

The Sandero shares its platform with the rest of the Dacia models, making the range cheaper with no chassis development costs, but it is the first time that Dacia will be competing in the highly competitive city hatchback market.

In keeping with the Dacia brand, the Sandero is positioned at the entry-level end of the market and aims to offer more equipment and space for less money than the rival manufacturers offerings.

More details on the brand and models set for release in UK specification will be announced closer to the launch date. Prices are also unavailable but, considering the Logan saloon is available on the continent for around £5,500, you can expect prices in the UK to be far lower than the established competition.

■ NEW MARKET . . . Sandero shares chassis with other Dacia models.

■ REAR WINDOW . . . Dacia is perfectly presentable.

■ INTERIOR . . . Dacia is well equipped for the price.

It's Renault's Mégane – but not as we know it

RENAULT is well known within the automotive industry for producing some sensational concept cars, and at this year's Geneva Motor Show, it hasn't let its reputation slide. The star car for the French firm at the Swiss show is the Mégane Coupe Concept.

The Coupe Concept, and I quote from the car's press release, "previews a compact coupe to be released at a later date".

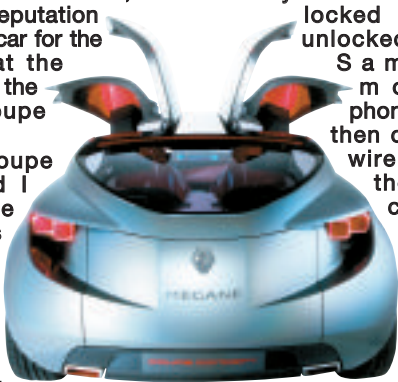

When Renault wants to add a bit of flair to its range, it doesn't do it by halves.

The stunning concept showcases technology potentially set for future Renault models. LED headlights and a comprehensive media centre are two obvious visual features. Another is the lack of conventional wing mirrors, with cameras where the mirrors are usually situated. These images are then shown on screens inside the car. The most eye-catching feature of the lot though is the lack of key, or even keycard. The car is locked and unlocked with a Samsung mobile phone, which then connects wirelessly to the media centre. For the passengers, there is a touch screen media player each, with the ability to swap files via Bluetooth. The concept doesn't lack for performance either with a two litre turbocharged engine pushing out 197bhp. More importantly, though, is the torque figure of 207lb ft, giving the Coupe Concept effortless acceleration potential.

When Renault say this is a preview for a future model, let's hope they keep as many features as possible.

■ STYLISH LINES . . . classic coupe looks belie advanced design.

Property Writer

We are looking for a Property Writer to take on responsibility for one of Cambridge Newspapers' most important areas of business.

The role - which will suit a highly organised self-starter - involves supplying property and commercial property editorial for all the company's titles, including the market-leading Property News magazine and our range of weekly newspapers.

As well as writing copy and organising pictures, liaising and maintaining good relationships with estate agents is a key part of the role, so great social and interpersonal skills are a must. Excellent computer skills are also essential.

We offer a competitive salary, five weeks' holiday plus bank holidays, discounted health care cash scheme and free parking.

Please apply to Karen Brooks, Editor's PA, with a CV and covering letter, by Wednesday 26th March 2008. Please email karen.brooks@cambridge-news.co.uk or write to Karen Brooks, Cambridge Newspapers Ltd, Winship Road, Milton, CB24 6PP.

Previous applicants need not apply.

We are a leading regional Newspaper publisher and a member of Iliffe News and Media. Our titles include the award-winning Cambridge Evening News, 11 weekly newspapers, a stable of magazines and a suite of websites.

We offer a competitive salary, 5 weeks' annual holiday and free on site parking. Following a probationary period there is an option to join a contributory pension scheme and subsidised health cash plan.

Cambridge Newspapers

It is the company's policy to employ the best qualified personnel and provide equal opportunity for the advancement of employees including promotion and training and not to discriminate against any person because of sex, race, pregnancy, disability, marital or family status, age, sexual orientation, religious beliefs or trade union memberships.

Time to try a New Career?

If you would like a positive change within your life and for other people, then you could be a key person within our Service based at our offices in Fulbourn.

OUTREACH WORKER - AUTISM OUTREACH SERVICE

One Year Fixed Term Contract
21 Hours per Week (over 3 or 4 days)
Salary £16,835 pro rata per annum

We are seeking a dynamic person with experience in the field of autism/early years to work with children with A.S.D. If you can deliver individual programmes through play, provide family support and are keen to assist in the development of this service, then we would be pleased to hear from you. The successful candidate will need to be well organised and enjoy working in a team environment.

PAHR ASSISTANT

15 Hours per Week (Thursday and Friday)
Salary range £19,419-£22,149 pro rata per annum

The key functions of this combined role are to provide support to our Chief Executive and to have responsibility for all aspects of recruitment and selection and any/all other staff employment matters. The successful applicant will have excellent secretarial and interpersonal skills, must be highly organised and be able to work confidentially and independently and upon own initiative and have the ability to multi-task and work to tight deadlines.

Advertising Telephone Sales Advisor - Cambridge Crier Based in Milton

Are you hard working, self-motivated, enthusiastic and confident?

We are looking for a target driven person to sell advertising space over the telephone. The role entails liaising with regular clients, seeking out new business opportunities and assisting with the design and layout of advertisements.

A good standard of English and spelling is vital, as is an excellent telephone manner. Sales experience is preferred, but not essential as full in house training will be given.

This position offers an excellent bonus scheme, on top of a competitive salary, ongoing training and the possibility of subsequent promotion.

For an application pack, please call Peter Baron, Sales Manager, Cambridge Crier Series on: 01223 434204 or email: peter.baron@cambridge-news.co.uk

We are a leading regional Newspaper publisher and a member of Iliffe News and Media. Our titles include the award-winning Cambridge Evening News, 11 weekly newspapers, a stable of magazines and a suite of websites.

We offer a competitive salary, 5 weeks' annual holiday and free on site parking. Following a probationary period there is an option to join a contributory pension scheme and subsidised health cash plan.

Cambridge Newspapers

It is the company's policy to employ the best qualified personnel and provide equal opportunity for the advancement of employees including promotion and training and not to discriminate against any person because of sex, race, pregnancy, disability, marital or family status, age, sexual orientation, religious beliefs or trade union memberships.

Recruitment Sales Team Leader Based in Milton Competitive salary and bonus scheme

Cambridge Newspapers portfolio of titles is the market leader for recruitment advertising in mid Anglia. Our combination of well respected newspapers like the Evening News, in conjunction with our powerful website, offers an unrivalled package to help companies find staff. Due to an internal promotion, we're looking for someone to help carry on the success.

Duties will include:

- Assisting the Classified Manager in managing the recruitment team by motivating staff, developing / creating new revenue ideas and assisting with one to one training
- Sell recruitment advertising into various publications through telephone canvassing and field sales visits
- Prospect for new clients to develop business and to assist other team members in gathering leads
- Be responsible for organisation of the prestigious Cambridge Evening News annual Job Fair.

You will need to be hard working, enthusiastic, possess excellent communication skills and have a hands on approach.

This position is ideally suited for an experienced sales person looking to make the next step in their career development. Full on going training will be provided for the right candidate.

Opportunities within IT

The Wellcome Trust Sanger Institute uses large-scale sequencing, informatics and IT and analysis of genetic variation to understand gene function in health and disease and to generate resources of lasting value.

The IT supporting Sanger's science is leading edge, world-class with very large scale, high performance computing. The IT support team manages the campus networks, a large SAN with over 1 Petabyte of storage and large computer farms of 1000+ nodes.

We are accelerating the growth of our IT infrastructure rapidly and therefore we are looking for a number of additional systems administrators at various levels to join our team of IT professionals.

Junior Systems Administrator Ref: CEN1571

We want to grow our own IT professionals. If you have proven IT related experience and have the ambition to create a solid IT career then this may be the position for you. Junior administrators start on the ground level but will have a great opportunity to work alongside the best in the world.

Helpdesk Engineer Ref: CEN1574

This is the training ground where lesser experienced administrators can become familiar with daily operations in support of over 800 staff. You will be expected to be conscientious, act with initiative and have a good telephone manner with strong customer services skills. You must be able to work under pressure, be organized and have a good overall knowledge of IT activities. First line support or experience of call-desk/helpdesk operations will be an advantage.

Systems Administrator (3 positions) Ref: CEN1570/3/9

Are you an experienced IT administrator and conversant with a number of the following: Linux, Mac, Windows, networks, NIS/DNS, email, shell scripting, backups, trouble shooting and fault diagnosis, system monitoring? Do you have excellent customer service skills and ability to work without supervision? If the answer is yes to both of these then this opportunity could be for you, this is a chance to expand your IT knowledge in a large scale environment and also the opportunity to focus on bigger projects. We have vacancies within each of the following groups:

Operations Group - managing desktop operations and user support (Windows, Mac and Linux, networking, backups, good scripting ability)

Storage Group - working with large scale storage solutions (NAS/NFS, SAN (Brocade) and Backup management (Netbackup)

Infrastructure Management Group - working with hardware installations, software provisioning, monitoring and management (Windows, Linux, Mac, email, NIS/DNS, strong scripting abilities etc)

We offer competitive salaries and a comprehensive range of benefits including a final salary pension scheme and excellent on-site facilities. Further details can be found on our website <http://www.sanger.ac.uk/careers/jobs/>.

To apply for this position please email your CV (including 2 referees) and current salary details, quoting the relevant reference number to: recruit@sanger.ac.uk.

Or post to: Human Resources, The Wellcome Trust Sanger Institute, Genome Campus Hinxton, Cambridge, CB10 1SA.

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

Grampian made to pay penalty

GRAMPIAN Sunday were dramatically denied a place in the Suffolk Sunday Trophy final after an action-filled semi-final concluded in a bitter penalty shootout defeat.

The game started brightly for Lowestoft-based Red Herring as Grampian keeper Joe Jackson was forced into a fine save.

Grampian saw 47-goal Danny Hill come close on a couple of occasions before Herring broke the deadlock on 14 minutes.

Grampian piled the pressure

(Red Herring won 3-2 on pens)
SUFFOLK SUNDAY TROPHY, SEMI-FINAL

and went close with efforts from James Thurbin, Craig Dickson and Hill.

The equaliser came on 35 minutes with a thunderous 35-yard strike from Craig Dickson from a free-kick.

Three minutes later, Grampian took the lead, Dickson again with the goal with another brilliantly struck free-kick from 20 yards.

The second half saw Grampian start brightly and they doubled their lead on 48 minutes with an excellent strike by Matthew Elmer.

Herring were not ready to concede defeat as Grampian's failure to convert chances came back to haunt them.

Two goals in the last 17 minutes pulled Herring level, taking the tie into extra time.

Hill and James Pagram, who was later sent off for a second bookable offence, came close to winning it for Grampian, but the match went to penalties.

It was misery for Grampian as Hill, Thurbin and Mayes missed their spot-kicks allowing Herring to take the tie 3-2 on penalties.

■ FINALISTS . . . The West Wratting U12 squad, who went down 5-0 to Histon Hornets in their Cambridge and District Colts League final at Cambridge Football Stadium. They are, back row, left to right, Andy Harrison (assistant manager) and Keith Warnock (manager). Middle row: Connor Finn, Sean Harrison, Thomas Warnock, Jamie Boulton, James Rawlinson, Tom Grafen, Liam Curran, Scott Hayes, Todd Powell. Front row: Harry Sendall, Jordan Read, Cameron Biggs, Luke Wilson, Jack Child.

Wratting triumph in thriller

WEST Wratting U11 chalked up a 4-2 victory in an exciting Cambs Mini League, Division 11A match at Thurlow.

Stevenson put Wratting ahead from the penalty spot, but Thurlow were soon level through Harry Wilson.

Lambert and Bush gave Wratting a 3-1 lead before the break and Ager scored a fourth early in the second period.

Wilson netted his second, but Wratting, whose man-of-the-match was Scott Ankers, held on.

■ Goals by Bailey Cassidy, Jack Davis and Josh Matthews won gained Grampian Gunners U10 a 3-0 victory over their Aztecs counterparts.

■ Grampian Gunners U9 battled out a 0-0 Cambs Mini League draw with Whittlesford Warriors.

Gunners came close to breaking the deadlock on several occasions with Henderson hitting the woodwork four times in the second half.

■ West Wratting U8 visited Cherry Hinton Lions and came away with a fine 2-0 victory.

Ace marksman George Eldred nabbed both goals on a day when Wratting's defence were never under any pressure.

Sad Delaware run out of steam

AN extraordinary comeback in the last 15 minutes saw Melford Razors sink Angels in an entertaining clash.

Delaware opened the scoring through Craig Foster, who shot low into the bottom corner from the edge of the area.

They extended their lead with Chris Capes slotting the ball away from a Mark Bailey flick.

Melford Razors 6 Delaware Feather Angels 4
TREADFIRST SUDBURY & DIST SUNDAY LEAGUE, DIVISION FIVE

Melford were able to pull a goal back before Foster collected his eighth goal of the campaign with a powerful swerving effort from 30 yards.

Angels carried on where they left off at the start of the second half, when Bailey raced on to a Matt Cullen throw-in to put the ball past the goalkeeper to make it the score 4-1.

From here, Razors came to life and scored their second before the frantic final 15 minutes saw them add another four goals against a tiring Delaware defence to seal their astounding comeback.

MARTIAL ARTS

Chilcott leads medal haul

HAVERHILL'S KUGB Shotokan Karate Club won a range of events at the Karate Union of Great Britain Central Regional Championships in Chesterfield.

With more than 200 competitors at the event, all of the club's entrants worked hard in the tough qualifying rounds against strong competition, to get through to the finals.

The club's winners included Daniel Chilcott, 15, who has recently been selected for the KUGB England squad. He won gold medals for the Individual Dan Grade Kata and Individual Dan Grade Kumite, a title which he has now defended for the past three years.

Chilcott also collected a gold medal with Ricki Howard, 14, and Dan Huckle, 15 for the Junior Team Kata. Dan also won a bronze medal for the Dan Grade Kata.

James Cohen, 23, Bruce Rawlinson, 23 and Carne Wilsher, 20, won a silver medal for Senior Team Kata. Wilsher also won a silver medal for Junior Male, 18-20, Individual Dan Grade Kumite.

Bronze medals were won by first time competitors Ashlie Millward, 12, for the Junior Kyu Grade Kata and Elliot Sidu, 11, for Junior Kyu Grade Kumite.

Sensei Colin Arnold said: "I am very pleased with our performance and our wins. It's fantastic for the club to take away these very good results.

"I would like to say thank you to the members, especially to the younger ones, as, for most, it was their first competition and they all worked extremely hard."

The club's main focus is now on the KUGB National Championships at Birmingham in May.

■ The Haverhill SKC run classes for all levels of abilities at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College and there is a beginners course starting on Tuesday, at 7pm.

Taylor quits as budget slashed

STEVE Taylor has called time on his spell in charge of Haverhill Rovers after he was given the news that his budget was to be cut in half between now and the end of the season.

The former Ely City boss took over from Richard Carter in October 2006 and carried the Suffolk club to a history-making appearance in the final qualifying round of the FA Cup, a Ridgeons League First Division Knockout Cup win and promotion to the Premier Division.

Taylor: "I was told that the budget was going to be cut in half between now and the end of the season, so I have decided now is the right time to go.

"I've had two good years there. I almost quit earlier in the season, but to be fair the committee improved the budget then, but I am not prepared to go to the players now and tell them their money has been cut.

"We've done really well in the FA Cup the last two seasons and won a trophy last year as well as promotion, and are in the top six now, but I will probably just put my feet up for now and enjoy the break."

But Taylor, who decided enough was enough after Saturday's 1-0 defeat to Mildenhall, lays some of the blame at the foot of the town of Haverhill after its residents failed to get out and match his side's on-the-field success by flooding through the turnstiles.

He added: "I can understand the committee's decision because we have not had the support we deserve from the town this season, which means we haven't had the gates to keep the budget up."

Rovers chairman Steve Brown is sad to see Taylor go, but is not surprised, and he had looked to veteran defender Colin Vowden to take up the reins from now until the end of the campaign, but he has had a change of heart and left to join Newmarket.

So club captain Marcus Hunt will be in charge for Saturday's game at home to Felixstowe & Walton, with help from former first-team boss and current committee member Paul Goodman.

Brown said: "I think Steve has struggled with work commitments, but the budget was the straw that broke the camel's back.

"There is no animosity and we wish Steve well, but we were not prepared to go thousands in debt and things have been a bit too stretched since we came up."

■ EXIT . . . Steve Taylor, who has resigned a manager of Haverhill Rovers after "two good years".

■ BLOCKED . . . Haverhill's Adam Ben-Saud is tackled by Stephen Spriggs, of Mildenhall, at Recreation Way on Saturday.

Rovers have more woe on their travels

Mildenhall Town 1
Haverhill Rovers 0

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

HAVERHILL slithered to a narrow defeat against high-flying Suffolk rivals Mildenhall at Recreation Way on Saturday.

Matt Robinson's early goal was enough to give the home side the slender victory. The hosts began in sprightly fashion and went close through Stephen Spriggs, before Robinson got on the end of Darren Coe's pass to fire his side ahead.

Nick Impey drew a point-blank save from home keeper Ben Nower and Russell Bull went close as Haverhill piled on the pressure.

Nower's brilliant reflexes thwarted Adam Ben-Saud after the break and Marc Abbott twice missed the target from distance as Mildenhall clung on to claim maximum points.

Tony Lyes and Dave Pinkowski's charges remain in fourth place in the table, while Haverhill have now gone five away games without a win.

RUGBY UNION

Kieran's haul brings relief for Haverhill

Haverhill & District 29
Lakenham Hewett 7

EASTERN COUNTIES LEAGUE, DIVISION TWO

KIERAN McDonogh grabbed four tries as Haverhill sealed their first win since the opening day of the season with a convincing victory over their opponents from Norwich on Saturday.

The No 8 opened the scoring after using his strength and power to break on the blind side, and he doubled the lead after Haverhill won a scrum against the head to send them in 10-0 up at the break.

After a period of three phases in open play, McDonogh went through to complete his hat-trick, and Chris Claydon kicked the conversion.

Fly-half Ryan Raffell got the fourth try out wide, again converted by Claydon, and McDonogh completed the scoring after a series of phases.

Stand-in skipper Paul Bergin said: "It was a good win, the lads are really pleased as it's been a rough season.

"Although Kieran got four tries, it was through team effort. In the second half they took the ball back to us a bit but not too much, and whereas a few months ago we might have crumbled, this time we didn't."

He added: "It was controlled, disciplined play and we had a low penalty count against us."

RIDING

Tom's a class act

TALENTED rider Tom Vacher, 14, from Thurlow, won an award as the best Suffolk rider in his class at Poplar Park British Eventing competition.

Competing against much older riders, the King's School Ely pupil, finished third in his section of the competition, a marked improvement on the week before when he came seventh in an event at Isleham.
